

A historical map of the world, likely from the 17th century, showing continents and oceans. Overlaid on the map are six rectangular buttons with a textured, stone-like appearance. The buttons are arranged in two columns and three rows. The text on the buttons is: 'RESOURCES & LINKS' (top left), 'BOOKLET' (top right), 'GRID OF TOPICS' (middle left), 'USING THE TOOLKIT' (middle right), 'GLOSSARY' (bottom left), and 'ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS' (bottom right). The map includes labels for 'AMERICA PARS', 'AFRICA PARS', 'ASIA NOVA', 'OCEANUS AEQVINOCTIALIS', and 'ORIENTALIS'. There are also decorative elements like a compass rose and a title block in the bottom left corner.

RESOURCES & LINKS

BOOKLET

GRID
OF TOPICS

USING THE TOOLKIT

GLOSSARY

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

ADB

PPIAF
PUBLIC-PRIVATE INFRASTRUCTURE ADVISORY FACILITY