Disclaimer and Copyright Page for PPIAF-Branded Outputs
(Books, Toolkits, papers)

The findings, interpretations, and conclusions expressed in this [REPORT, TOOLKIT] paper are entirely those of the authors and should not be attributed in any manner to the Public-Private Infrastructure Advisory Facility (PPIAF) or to the World Bank, to its affiliated organizations, or to members of its Board of Executive Directors or the countries they represent. Neither PPIAF nor the World Bank guarantees the accuracy of the data included in this publication or accepts responsibility for any consequence of their use. The boundaries, colors, denominations, and other information shown on any map in this report do not imply on the part of PPIAF or the World Bank Group any judgment on the legal status of any territory or the endorsement or acceptance of such boundaries.

The material in this publication is copyrighted. Copyright is held by the World Bank on behalf of both the World Bank and PPIAF. Dissemination of this work is encouraged, and the World Bank will normally grant permission promptly and, when reproduction is for non-commercial purposes, without asking a fee. Permission to photocopy portions of this publication should be addressed to: Copyright Clearance Center, Inc., 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, U.S.A., telephone 978-750-8400, fax 978-750-4470, or through the Internet at www.copyright.com

For questions about this publication or information about ordering more copies, please refer to the PPIAF Web site or contact PPIAF by email at the address below.

Public-Private Infrastructure Advisory Facility (PPIAF)
1818 H Street NW
Washington, DC 20433
www.ppiaf.org
E-mail: ppiaf@ppiaf.org

NOTE TO TASK TEAM

As a general rule, if PPIAF provided 60% or more of the funding, then wording such as the following should be used:

“Additional financing was provided by [name of organization].”

If PPIAF funding is 30 - 60% then the output should be considered joint and PPIAF and the sponsors should be listed in the descending order of funding.

If PPIAF funding is less than 30% then PPIAF is a co-financier.
Disclaimer for PPIAF Non-Branded Outputs

The findings, interpretations, and conclusions expressed in this [REPORT] are entirely those of the authors and should not be attributed in any manner to PPIAF or to the World Bank, to its affiliated organizations, or to members of its Board of Executive Directors or the countries they represent. Neither PPIAF nor the World Bank guarantees the accuracy of the data included in this publication or accepts responsibility for any consequence of their use. The boundaries, colors, denominations, and other information shown on any map in this report do not imply on the part of PPIAF or the World Bank Group any judgment on the legal status of any territory or the endorsement or acceptance of such boundaries.

[SHOULD BE ADJUSTED DEPENDING UPON OTHER DONORS, AND WHETHER MAP IS INCLUDED]
Acknowledgement Page for PPIAF Branded Outputs

This [study, book, toolkit] is being published by the Public-Private Infrastructure Advisory Facility (PPIAF) and [CO-FINANCIER]. PPIAF is a multi-donor technical assistance facility aimed at helping developing countries improve the quality of their infrastructure through private sector involvement. For more information on the facility see the Web site: www. PPIAF.org.

The [study, book, toolkit] was prepared by a core team led by [NAME, AFFILIATION, AND SECTOR FOCUS IF DESIRED] and comprising [NAME, AFFILIATION, AND SECTOR FOCUS], and a team of consultants including [LIST CONSULTING FIRMS]. The [study, book, toolkit] also draws on inputs from [LIST IF APPROPRIATE], as well as discussions with representatives of the private sector.

The preparation of the [study, book, toolkit] was supported by an advisory group comprising representatives from the private sector, financial institutions and bilateral donor agencies. The advisory group comprised representatives from [LIST AGENCIES AND INDIVIDUALS]

NOTE TO TASK TEAM

As a general rule, if PPIAF provided 60% or more of the funding, then wording such as the following should be used:

“Additional financing was provided by [name of organization]”.

If PPIAF funding is 30 - 60% then the output should be considered joint and PPIAF and the sponsors should be listed in the descending order of funding.

If PPIAF funding is less than 30% then PPIAF is a co-fonancier.
Acknowledgement Page for Non-Branded PPIAF Reports

Suggested format, which may be modified

This report was prepared by [NAME OF CONSULTANT FIRM], independent consultants for [NAME OF GOVERNMENT CLIENT]. It served as background documentation for [INDICATE REASON FOR THE REPORT, AND ANY RELEVANT EVENTS WITH DATES AND LOCATION]. Its principal objective is [INDICATE OBJECTIVE OF THE REPORT]. INDICATE OUTLINE OF REPORT.

The report was funded by the Public-Private Infrastructure Advisory Facility (PPIAF), a multi-donor technical assistance facility aimed at helping developing countries improve the quality of their infrastructure through private sector involvement (for more information see www.PPIAF.org). Additional financing was provided by [INDICATE OTHER CONTRIBUTORS].

NOTE TO TASK TEAM

As a general rule, if PPIAF provided 60% or more of the funding, then wording such as the following should be used:

“Additional financing was provided by [name of organization]”.

If PPIAF funding is 30 - 60% then the output should be considered joint and PPIAF and the sponsors should be listed in the descending order of funding.

If PPIAF funding is less than 30% then PPIAF is a co-financier.